

Clara Balduzzi, Argentina

Graduated with honors in Orchestral Conducting from the Faculty of Musical Arts and Sciences of Catholic University of Argentina.

She has been the Assistant Conductor of the Chamber Orchestra of the Lanus National University since 2009. She has conducted in important concert halls, such as the Teatro Roma, the Palacio Pizzurno, the Colegio de Escribanos and in the Ciclo de Música Las Victorias.

She is the Conductor of the Preto Choir and Orchestra since 2018 and the Winds Orchestra of the City, the Orchestra and Chorus of the Arts Faculty of UCA, in Parana.

She has participated in courses, seminars and workshops in conducting opera, choral symphonic works, ballet and choirs with maestros Jan Latham-Koenig, Emmanuel Siffert, Ariel Alonso, Lucia Zicos, M.Laura Muñiz, Carlos Vieu and Hans Christoph Rademann.