

Moiceli Medina, Chile

Venezuelan orchestra conductor, violinist and music teacher, Bachelor in Music Performance with mention in violin (UNEARTE - Venezuela), Postgraduate studies in Music Direction (Universidad Simón Bolívar), Master in Education Management (UBA-VENEZUELA).

As a performer, she was first violin in the Symphonic Orchestra of Aragua, she won the competition to participate in the orchestral phase of the MUENCHEN CONCERT MÜNICH-GERMANY (1999-2002) as assistant concertmaster of the MUENCHEN CONCERT orchestra, with recordings and tours in Bavaria.

She teaches violin and chamber music at the Aragua State Conservatory and the Federico Villena School of Music.

As a conductor, she studied with Alfredo Rugeles, Luis Miguel González, Sunk Kuag, Paolo Bartolameolli (FOJI CHILE) and Georges Mark, director of the Conservatory of Vienna, Austria. She was resident and permanent guest conductor of the Symphony Orchestras of the Aragua State, Carabobo Symphony Orchestra, Chamber Orchestra of the University of Carabobo and the National Philharmonic Orchestra. In 2012 she was invited to conduct the closing concert of the III Piano Festival with the Chamber Orchestra of the UC, with Maestro Leo Blanco of the Berklee College of Music. Music Director at SISTEMA VENEZUELA (2000-2019), Director of the Orchestra of the Conservatory of Music of the State of Aragua (2012-2014), as well as founding member and executive director of the Civil Association ADSIM (Academy for the social and integral development of the musician).

In February 2023 she won the competition for the position of Principal Conductor of the Orquesta Infantil y Juvenil de Lo Barnechea, Chile, where she is currently resident.